

University of Montana

ScholarWorks at University of Montana

University of Montana News Releases, 1928,
1956-present

University Relations

2-11-1970

Enrollment in evening welfare course still possible at UM

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases>

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations, "Enrollment in evening welfare course still possible at UM" (1970). University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present. 5536.
<https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/5536>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.

IMMEDIATELY

remmel/js
2/11/70
local

ENROLLMENT IN EVENING WELFARE
COURSE STILL POSSIBLE AT UM

MISSOULA---

Enrollment in a course dealing with the sociology of impoverished live styles is still possible through the/Extension Division.

The four-credit course--entitled Sociology 400, Problems in Social Organization--is held from 7-10 p.m. Thursdays in room 104 of the Liberal Arts Building on the UM campus.

The course is directed and taught by Robert L. Deaton, an assistant professor of social welfare at UM.

According to Deaton, individuals registering late for the class will not be behind in classwork. "Interested persons should enroll as soon as possible for the course but, as of right now, new students will not be at a disadvantage."

Material for the course was developed recently for the Office of Education by Morton L. Arkava, an associate professor of social welfare at UM.

School teachers, social workers, nurses and other social agency personnel are invited to attend the classes. Regular University students must secure Deaton's permission in order to take the course.

Those interested may contact Deaton by phoning 243-5533 on campus.

###